

Debate whether the meaning of 'ethical' has changed through history.	Edward Sapir and Benjamin Lee Whorf never co-authored anything. How did this hypothesis come to be, and become popular?	How does gaining historical knowledge redefine the meaning of 'wrong'?	How relevant are reason, instinct, intuition and imagination in business.
Discuss how an atheist would regard the contributions of RKS to human knowledge and development.
Answer this question. If we are not indigenous, then what are we? How do you come to this conclusion?
If speaking a 2nd or 3rd language makes people smarter, are monolingual people at a disadvantage? Explain.
  End
Start Here 	Explain why can we say that mathematics is a language.	Explain how the arts can be used to explain human development, both intellectual and technological.	It's harder to be a knower without the sense of touch. Explain why you agree or disagree.

Debate what is more important in writing literature: imagination or command of language.	How is observation in science experiments different from daily observation and contemplation?	Debate whether you agree or disagree with: 'language and culture impact common sense'.	Which could be some limitations of primary sources? Explain and justify.
			"Video killed the radio star", and mobile phones killed... Complete statement and explain.
			Explain the relevance of learning to effectively lie when one learns a new language.
			Debate quality of knowledge. Consider vast information access in the present and limited access in the past.
			Mention and explain 2 scenarios in which we could say 'knowledge may disappear'.
In our language, we need to learn two different languages forms: written and spoken. Debate how they are different.	Debate why we can say that women can communicate and evoke emotions even without words.	Explain 'personal knowledge' using the story of Tarzan.	Debate how going blind at 10 could affect the way our knowledge evolves and develops.